Reviews

This book will not be simple to get going on reading but extremely exciting to read through. Yes, it can be play, still an interesting and amazing literature. I am very easily could possibly get a delight of reading a written book.

Y. Holt(F)1916. 596p. illus. maps. 1. 40. A good, clear treatment which attempts to explain how mans industries are determined by his environment, devoting half space to the industries of the United States and among foreign countries emphasizing Latin America and the Orient. Part 3 deals with world commerce. Questions at chapter-ends provoke thought. A useful book for secondary and normal schools, and interesting enough for the general reader. Libraries which have the authors larger book. Industrial and commercial geography (Booklist, 10: 281, Mr 14) which has its material grouped by industry, may not need this. 338 Commercial geography Industrial arts II Commerce 16-42525 Steiner, Edward Alfred. The confession of a hyphenated American. N. Y. Revell(Mr)1916. 63p. 50c. net. A lecture delivered under the auspices of the League for Political Education, New York City, on the immigrants regard for America. Though brief, filled with much commonsense and hopeful sanity. 325 U. S. --Foreign population 16-91833 Stoner, Mrs Winifred Sackville. Natural education (Childhood and youth series) Indianapolis, Bobbs-Merrill, 1914. 295p. 1 net. The author describes her daughters intensive home training up to her tenth year, when she appears as something in the nature of a prodigy speaking several foreign languages, etc. The theories used are not new but their method of presentation makes an appeal to inexperienced women who have never given thought to child training. This book may be used as a leader to more balanced practical works....
