

High School ACT: Nineteen Hundred and Nine; Information, Regulations, Suggested Courses of Study (Classic Reprint)

By Unknown Author

Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from High School Act: Nineteen Hundred and Nine; Information, Regulations, Suggested Courses of Study Ninety-six State-aided high schools are now in operation in South Carolina. Though these are distributed among thirty-six counties, Anderson, Greenville, Orangeburg and Marion are the only counties qualifying for the full amount allowed by the High School Act. The Legislature, at its last session, raised the appropriation to $60,000.00, and this increase provides for the establishment of at least twenty-five additional high schools. In no case will the establishment of a high school be allowed to impair the efficiency of the common school. Under the amended Act of 1909, any village with less than four hundred population may establish a high school, if fifteen pupils are enrolled above the seventh grade. Every high school district must levy at least a two-mill tax for either high school or common school purposes. Special attention is called to Regulation No. 17 relative to high school salaries. In village and rural schools employing four teachers, one teacher will be allowed to divide time between high school...

READ ONLINE
[4.87 MB]

Reviews

Absolutely among the finest book We have at any time read through. We have read through and that i am sure that i will going to read once more again later on. I found out this book from my i and dad suggested this book to find out.

-- Alford McClure

I actually started reading this article ebook. It is actually packed with knowledge and wisdom Its been printed in an remarkably simple way and it is only after i finished reading this pdf where in fact modified me, alter the way i believe.

-- Prof. Uriel Witting