Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Doctor Hunter On the east bank of the Mississippi river a few miles north of the Twin Cities of Rock-Island and Moline, Illinois, lies the little dead and buried town of Hampton. In its day a prosperous mining town, it lies now asleep in the narrow bottom between the high bluffs and the wide river. In this town by whose doorway the great river sweeps along, its polished surface extending a full mile between Hampton and the Iowa shore, I spent two years of my childhood. In laying the plot of Doctor Hunter in Hampton, therefore, I build my brain story amid scenes which are to me beautiful realities. That the characters are drawn largely after living models, I will not deny. But I affirm that the story is my own, to the best of my knowledge. The story in brief is this: Doctor Hunter is a man of fifty-five. A native of Maine, and a resident of Riverside (Hampton) for many years. He is the type of country doctor which ranks with the village...
