S. Briry said: - I will say that I appeared before the Committee of the Legislature when the bill to regulate the practice of medicine came up. A Registration Bill was brought forward which pretended to provide a way to improve the practice of medicine in Maine. The meeting was a large one, the discussion of the bill a very interesting one, but the Committee made no report on the bill. The bill was drawn up by a physician from Houlton. Its provisions were very indefinite. It was drawn up in a very crude manner and made no strong impression on the Committee. I believe some form of bill could be made which would work to advantage to all reputable physicians. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare...
