The Use of Single Words in a Double Meaning* The first of these chapters on the Word-Play in Plautus was presented to the Faculty of Philosophy of the University of Pennsylvania in 1904, as a thesis for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy. The material for the second was prepared while I was Harrison Fellow for Research in the same University in 1904-1905. I wish to acknowledge here my appreciation of the benefits received from the Harrison Foundation of the University, to which I am deeply indebted for the opportunities afforded me, first as Fellow and later as Fellow for Research, to prepare these papers; and to express my thanks to the Publication Committee for their generosity in publishing the work. It is a pleasure to express my gratitude to my teachers, Professors J. C. Rolfe and W. B. McDaniel, for their kind interest and advice throughout the preparation of this study, and to my friend, Dr. Roland G. Kent, for his kindness in aiding me with the reading of the proof.
