The five basic senses: taste, touch, sight, sound, and smell shall be explained and set into relation to the brand elements. A lot of marketers discuss about Emotional Branding as the future approach without exactly knowing what this term contains. The aim of this diploma thesis is the development of a conceptual approach in form of a guideline with the key components to emotionalize brands, to give them a face and a character in order to reach the overall aim: the identification of customers with the brand. The first part of this work provides the basic knowledge. It explains and defines in addition to the basic terms brand and branding, terms like brand image, brand identity and brand equity. The second part describes the changes in buying behavior, the changing needs and different perceptions of today's customers. The three main generations are explained to demonstrate the need for Emotional Branding as a new kind of branding tool. Additionally the explanations to hybrid buying behavior and smart shopping will show the necessity of a positive brand experience and the change from Branding to Emotional Branding. It gives a definition of Emotional Branding and a short introduction to the instruments that can be used to support the brand elements, which are closer...
